THE GOSPEL CHANGES LIVES

His Love Ministries has made an impact on my life in a tremendous way. I have been given the opportunity to minister to the lost world through this ministry. There are many times when men and women turn to Jesus after hearing the Gospel. I have witnessed them weeping over their sin, and turning to the One who loves them the most, Jesus Christ. Nonetheless, with every ministry there is always the advance of the enemy trying to snuff it out. I have witnessed deceit from a facility that was being influenced by the ways of this world. Yet, Praise God, that He has all authority and nothing can thwart His plan, even the forces of the world, and wickedness.

Finally, God has shown me that from birth to death we all need Jesus. We need Him for clarity, truth, love, salvation and much, much more. There was a woman struggling with the lies of the enemy at one service, she was in despair. I told her the truth of God's love, and her mind cleared, countenance changed, if only for that moment. HOW AMAZING WHAT GOD CAN DO! I am thankful for His Love Ministries, and will continue to pray for many more salvations, and the opportunity to preach, teach, and plant God's Word.

CLAY POTS

It is so heartwarming to witness God working in the lives of the women in my Bible study class at the prison. There is an average of 30 women in the class, who come eagerly to study God's word. We have been walking through Genesis and I have seen eyes opened to the truth and hearts that desire to learn more. They come to learn more about Who God is and His character. We have one more lesson in Genesis and then we will move right on into Exodus.

Cheryl Scott is our volunteer who helps me. As the ladies come in we give them cards with scripture on them. They are always excited to receive these and many times ask for two. They read the scripture to each other and some of the comments we hear are; "I really needed that today!" or "This is confirmation of what I have been praying about." I also give them a handout on the lesson that they can keep. Some have been sharing the lessons with their families.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 2 Corinthians 5:17

Please pray for salvation and spiritual growth for these ladies. Pray that they will use this waiting period in their life to grow in their faith. Pray that they will be so strong in their faith by the time they are released that they will stay strong in the Lord and stay on the right path.

A broken clay pot seems to be of no use. However, our Lord Jesus can take broken clay pots (broken people) and remold them into something beautiful and allow His Light to shine through.

LOST SHEEP FOUND BY JESUS

One of those lost sheep was a 13-year-old girl from CH. After hearing that Satan is the father of lies and that we should live by the truth Jesus teaches us, she confessed to us, "Everything I have said to you so far has been a lie, and I have lied all the time." I don't want to lie anymore and want to be Christian. Unlike her usual tantrums and sulky attitude, she was gentle and calm. There was a sense of seriousness. How did that girl deeply grasp those words, feel convicted, and make a decision to follow Jesus? It is only by the Holy Spirit. Jesus is our living hope

PLEASE CONSIDER PARTNERING WITH US

His Love Ministries does not charge the facilities for any of the services we provide.
We are a full-time ministry totally supported by individuals, churches, and businesses that are willing to financially partner with us to spread the Gospel to the forgotten.

DESPERATE PRAYERS

These are recent written prayer requests from the girls at Coastal Harbor. Heart-wrenching cries for help.

"Dear God, I just want to pray that things get better in life for me. Things have been hard for me. I just feel unloved and not cared for, which is probably true. I've been in foster care for 12 years and still in foster care. I feel alone. Nobody cares about me. I'm such a bad person. I just want to give up."

"Can you pray for me to come out of my self-harming habits. Can you please pray that I have the strength to forgive my abuser? I appreciate you!"

"Lately I've been struggling with sadness and depression. I have been having a lot of anger. It won't go away, and I need your prayers. I am worried that because of my actions I won't go home. Please pray for me. I need it."

"Please pray for my birth mom. She's having problems with drugs. She's back in jail. I don't have a lot of faith in her because she has done this every year since I was 2."

"I pray that I heal from the sexual assaults I've been through in the past. I pray that I feel better from the pain I've been through. Please help me!"

"God, I pray you keep my siblings safe. Please pray and keep my sister alive in jail. Let her have the best time of her life there but, at the same time-learn her lesson about running away and fighting and aggression."

"I pray that it'll be my time soon Lord. I lived enough of this life, and it's been a hurtful, tiring, draining life. I'm ready for you."

"Dear Lord, please help my mom stop doing drugs and please don't let her die. Well, I know she's not the best mom but I still love her. I want help for my family and thank you for letting me get out of my dad's house because he was mean to me and my brothers. Please help me with my new family."

"God, I ask you to help me find a healthy place to live. I ask you to help me stop hurting myself."

Please remember to pray for us; we need wisdom and compassion as we bring the message of ultimate hope—Jesus Christ and a life surrendered to Him.

"For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation." 2 Corinthians 5:19

NEVER TOO OLD

As I am getting older. I often wonder how much I would wish to attend church services if I were living in a nursing home.

Justin, Karen, and I regularly visit a nursing home every other week to worship with the residents. The patients join us in wheelchairs, with the assistance of walkers, or using canes, as only a few are able to walk independently. We sing traditional hymns together, Justin delivers a message, and following the service, we share the refreshments we have prepared. We find great enjoyment in our time of fellowship. Last Saturday, everyone listened and responded with such sincerity to Justin's message that it was truly delightful. We shared a loving fellowship filled with joy, and we feel ourselves growing closer to one another. The residents often ask when we will return, and they always welcome us warmly and share their love. They yearn to worship God, and we are grateful to Him for leading us to them.

The Lord's salvation is ongoing there; After hearing the message, an older gentleman was deeply convicted and asked us, "Will the Lord forgive even a sinner like me?" He made a confession of faith that day. Nursing homes are the last place for some people to believe in Jesus and get saved. We are grateful to His Love Ministries, for sending us, and we also thank you for your prayers and support.

All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. John 6:37
